THE WORD OF GOD

Hymn II....."Awake, my soul, and with the sun"

Opening Acclamation & Collect for Purity.....p. 355, BCP

Gloria in excelsis, Hymnal S-280

The Collect of The Day

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson.....Proverbs 22:1-2, 8-9, 22-23

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold. The rich and the poor have this in common: the LORD is the maker of them all. Whoever sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of anger will fail. Those who are generous are blessed, for they share their bread with the poor. Do not rob the poor because they are poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate; for the LORD pleads their cause and despoils of life those who despoil them.

From Psalm 125 (read in unison)

1 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, *
which cannot be moved, but stands fast for ever.

2 The hills stand about Jerusalem; *
so does the LORD stand round about his people,
from this time forth for evermore.

3 The scepter of the wicked shall not hold sway over the land allotted to the just, *
so that the just shall not put their hands to evil.

4 Show your goodness, O LORD, to those who are good *
and to those who are true of heart.

5 As for those who turn aside to crooked ways,
the LORD will lead them away with the evildoers; *
but peace be upon Israel.

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you? You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. [For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.] What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

Hymn 602....."Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love"

The Gospel.....Mark 7:24-37

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go— the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone. Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Orders for Trinity Wear will begin on September 13 and will end on September 27.

New this time will be items with the Episcopalian shield.

Discover what the top ten reasons are for being an Episcopalian, written by Robin Williams.

The Haiti Project is requesting 8-pack boxes of large crayons for young children. They need at least 100 boxes. With back-to-school bargains, now is a great time to donate!
Thank you!

COLLEGE NEEDS

School is back in session, and we are back in care package mode! Below are some ideas of things that we could use. We have about 15 students, so the more donations the better. If you have any questions or further ideas, please contact Melissa Paradowski or call the office.

- Microwave Popcorn

- Snacks
- Pens
- Mechanical Pencils
- Highlighters
- Sticky Notes

We could also use about 4 volunteers to make rice krispie treats.
Please see Melissa Paradowski (for their due date)
if you are interested.

MEDICATION COLLECTION

A box is in Trinity's library for you to drop off your old, unused or expired medications. Our parish nurse, Phyllis Teets will take them to the Wauwatosa Public Library for proper disposal.

WASWALCOA VILLAGE TRUST FUND
TOSAFEST

Friday, Sept. 11th
Saturday, Sept. 12th

Trinity's Outreach committee invites helpers to join us at the Kids Korner at Tosafest, Saturday September 12th.

We will have a booth from noon to 4:00. Last year it was very well attended and well-received by the children and their parents. It was fun seeing so many young children walking around with the necklaces and fun glasses they created.

We need about 6-8 volunteers, adults and older youth, to cover 2 hour shifts. You will have fun while helping others learn a bit about our community of faith. We want those looking for a church to know we are out there!

Please sign up outside the office if interested and you will be contacted with details.
