THE WORD OF GOD

Hymn 207..... "Jesus Christ is risen today"
Easter Acclamation & Collect for Purity.....p. 355, BCP
Hymn 180 "He is risen, he is risen!"

The Collect of The Day

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson.....Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Psalm 118 (read responsively by whole verse)

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel now proclaim,
"His mercy endures for ever."

The Lord is my strength and my song,
and he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:

On this day the Lord has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

The Second Lesson.....I Corinthians 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you — unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them — though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Gospel Hymn 178....."Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen Lord"

The Gospel.....Mark 16:1-8

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Eastertide Prayers of the People.....(please see pew card)

The Peace

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Eastertide Prayers of the People – 2024

We pray for your Church throughout the world: in each and every manifestation, sustain its mission as a sojourner, keeper of time and place of respite for those who suffer pain or loss.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

We pray for those who serve in local, state and federal offices: give them wisdom and grace in shepherding the common good.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

We pray for ordinary citizens in mundane life, in each particular sphere of influence we find ourselves: grant that we may remain faithful in sharing the Good News – in word and deed – in our families, our communities and our world.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

We pray for your creation, which you have given into our care: heal our soil and bless those who work the land, and all those whose labors brings food to our tables.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

We acknowledge and repent of the hells we create. We pray for deliverance for those hells forced upon us which result in persecution, suffering and death. Rescue those near and abroad whose lives are wounded and scarred by violence and war; free those who are trapped, and remember in your Kingdom those we too easily forget.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

We thank you, God of all nations, for the First Nations – the original peoples of this land: bless these tribes and strengthen our resolve to learn their stories and work for reconciliation and justice.

O Wounded Healer

Continued on the back

We pray for those who suffer, in body, mind or spirit: comfort and give peace to all whose sufferings are not in fashion; illuminate the corners of our communities, families and hearts; remove the weeds of anxiety and care that choke out the seed of your Word. Purify our hearts with the burning fire of your love. We pray especially for the sick of the parish, especially....

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

Thank you, Giver of all Good Gifts, for moments of real joy when our time gets knotted up with Yours: give us eyes to see the gifts you so freely give. Bless those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this week, especially...

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

God of Refreshment and Rest: rehabilitate our imaginations where they are dry and cracked, quench our thirst with the life-giving water of your Holy Spirit.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

God of the Living and the Dead: we miss the people we love but are no longer here with us, find them on their continued journey to you and gather them up through your Spirit which knows no borders.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

God of Light and Life: bless the prayers we don't know how to speak and bless the words we say – even in the times we struggle to believe them.

O Wounded Healer

You are making all things new

The Celebrant offers a concluding collect.
